“ Park was a "straight shooter" and it was a pleasure to work with him on his finances the last 20 years. I always looked forward to seeing him. He always had a deal he was working on and great stories. I will miss him.

“ I met with Park every Thursday at the 8th Ward Club for years. There we discussed baseball, politics, the cattle business or just life in general. He always had an interesting story or two. His knowledge and memory of the "Southern End" of the county was remarkable. Once he took me on a "road trip" to these places to show me exactly what he was talking about. He would pull off to the side to give a brief history of that particular location.
Rest in peace, my friend, Thursdays will never be the same.
