“ Pappy, there are many memories I could share of you. But now all I can remove is how much of a funny man you were, even growing up once and awhile we would joke around or even when we would sit at the table with grammy and you where out side. Then when you would start to walk in grammy would say shh he's coming and you has no clue. Pappy I miss you like crazy already but all we need to do is remover the great times we had together. I love you

“ Dad, As much as I'm going to miss you. I know you are in a better place. U are now reunited with mom and Casey. It's going to be hard for awhile but I will manage. If there is one thing I've learned from you and mom is that you are both strong people and I can be that person too! I will get through this. I love you and will keep your memory alive!! RIP daddy!!
