“ Al was a true friend that will always be remembered and cherished. The many Penn State football games that we attended , discussed, watched and argued over are great memories. Watching the national championship together over Miami and breaking down the tape until well after three AM is one of my fondest memories. Our trip to watch Penn state and Notre Dame at Happy Valley is a life long classic. Resist in Peace my friend. And, save a seat at the table for me with you and Joe.
