“ This is my lil brother and I am forever going to miss the laugh's and beautiful drawings on each letter he wrote me. My heart is still so heavy but I know my brother is watching over myself and the family and is very proud of the person I have become. There were so many things we said that we were going to do places we wanted to go but God needed a strong soldier on his side and he needed u more . You are now in a better place and I hope you sleep in peace see you in the next lifetime. I Love u and I always will.
