

Blanche M. Crispen

August 11, 1923 - August 11, 2017

Blanche M. Crispen, 94, of Palmyra, passed away Friday, August 11, 2017 at Traditions of Hershey. She was the wife of the late Howard R. Marks and the late Ray Crispen. Blanche was born in Newark, NJ on September 7, 1922, daughter of the late Franklin Wilbur Kern and the late Bessie Schriek Kern. Blanche was a graduate of Crane University with a BS in Elementary Education and MS in Specialist Reading. She taught in several NJ school districts, retiring from the Neptune NJ School District.

She is survived by children, Jill, wife of Leland Hix of Eau Clair, WS, Noel, husband of Deloris Marks of Lebanon, 4 grandchildren, a great grandchild and sister Janet Jamison of Lakewood, NJ.

Interment will be made in Hillside Cemetery, N. Plainfield, NJ. Funeral services are incomplete at this time.

Tribute Wall

“ Blanche M. Crispen

October 22, 2023 at 10:35 PM

“ Blanche M. Crispen

October 06, 2023 at 08:29 AM

“ Blanche M. Crispen

October 05, 2023 at 11:43 PM

“ Blanche was quite a lady. We feel so privileged to have had her in our life. She always surprised us with how much spunk and energy she had. We always enjoyed her presence when she was with us. We hope it helps to know that our heartfelt thoughts and sympathy are with all of you at this most difficult time. Take care.

Linda (Crispen) and Don Orcutt - South Portland, ME - Family Friend - August 20, 2017 at 12:00 AM

“ Blanchi that's what I always called you I will miss you so much you was one off my favorite person you will be missed dearly fly high. From Sonia at traditions of Hershey

Sonia Perez - August 17, 2017 at 12:00 AM