“ Brad was an awesome person. I'll never forget when him and his dad taught myself and my siblings how to drive a go cart. They looked at us like we were nuts because we pretty much tore up his property. Wish we could go back to those times. Truly will be missed.

“ Brad had a good heart that was filled with good intentions. I asked his boys what one of their favorite memories is that they shared with him and they said Hershey Park. He could always make them laugh and there's so much of him in both of them. We find comfort in knowing that he's walking with Jesus.

“ I miss you so much! It feels like a piece of me has left. 7 years with you, I wouldn't want to take anything back there were good times and bad times but God always kept us together. You are an amazing, loving, caring, forgiving and HUGE heart man! We have so many memories it would take me forever to write them in here. 😊 but for now I love you SO MUCH and u will be forever in my heart ❤️ we will see eachother again I promise u that. Missing you always.

Rest in peace Brad. Although we did not get to see each other often since you kids all grew up and started lives of your own, the times spent together were nice and like we never missed a beat. I am glad we got to share a holiday meal in the last few years and that all the cousins got a chance to get together at the most recent family wedding.

Love Aunt Brenda
