“ Brad, tho i just found out today...I have thought about you alot lately not knowing why, i guess you crept into my heart each day since without me knowing. You were an amazing person, friend, father, and much more. I adored you, and you know that, I wish i could have done more to ease ur pain. I guess God was the only one to do that. You are home babe. Love Always....I miss you each and every day.

“ I was so sad to hear of Brad's passing. I grew up with Brad at The Plaza and I will always remember him as "Boo",the little boy with the shaggy hair who loved to play basketball at the pavillion and the barn or baseball in the field and idolized his big brother Mike.
