“Nan was the most beautiful woman and when I was young i believed that she never aged. Always smiling, baking dozens of delicious cookies at Christmas. The smell of her house on Main St Conestoga is something that I will always remember..made you feel so comfortable. My nanny loved reading suspense novels and as a teenager being able to share those books with her was exciting. God Bless my beautiful, strong, nan. I love you and miss you greatly!! P.S. I do wear my hat and scarf, always thinking of you.

“Your Mom had all you kids to look after, plus all the cooking and cleaning, but everytime I would be at the house, she was always smiling and cracking jokes. I remember one time I was there, and the kitchen light hanging over the table was broken, and she was standing there holding the light up while one of you kids went to find a screwdriver or something. Her arms were breaking but she was still laughing! What a lady! Donna Brenner Hoar

So sorry I could not be at the service today, but please know you are all in my thoughts and prayers. Carol was a special lady and a wonderful mom to all of you. You would not become the people you are today without her influence. Love, Joan (Ressler) Groff
