“ I love you MOM. You were everything i could have asked for in a mother. I just wish God would have let you stay with us longer for a chance to experience me graduating, Cheryl graduating college, and to see your grandchildren and Cheryl's and my weddings. But i guess God had some amazing plan for you that only you were able to fill. It just is upsetting that you had to go so soon, but i know you will be with us where ever we go. I just want you to know, I'm gonna be strong for you and never forget what you taught me because i want to make you the happiest and most proud mother that there is. I will always love you mom. Love, your son.

“ Gosh where do I begin...Still in such shock that u are gone & so regretful that we were not as close like we used to be when I was little. So many wonderful memories of all the good times we had at your parents home during all of the picnics. Playing that good ol'country music & volleyball in the yard. I always looked forward to coming over & hanging out when I was little & staying up late with all of our family members. I will never forget being in your wedding & the rehearsal night. I remember trying to get matching flower girl dresses with Jenn & going to McDonalds after rehearsal night with uncle Ronnie & Aunt Kathy. I was always so happy for you & ur family when u bought that gorgeous home in my old neighborhood I grew up in & stopping by for visits. Last but not least, you gave me the oppurtunity to bring home my first baby kitten ever after finding her in ur garage on Reedy Ln. I will never forget! May you now be free from all of your pain & watch over your family until we all meet again one day! I luv u "little Cathy"!

“ Cassie, you were my first born niece and you were such a beautiful little girl with a smile that could light up a room. I remember how both your pappies spoiled you rotten with so much love and happiness. god blessed you with the best parents any child could wish for. watching you grow up i was so proud of you and all that you accomplished. not only were you blessed with a wonderful husband, but two beautiful children who we all love very much. as i sit here today with pain in my heart, i would do anything to bring you back and tell you i love you with all my heart and wish i had spent more time with you. i guess god wanted a new angel and he chose you, so float on my precious girl until one day we will be a family in heaven. i will always love you and i will miss you. you were my "days of our lives" buddy and a good card player too. you also gave some awesome haircuts and perms .. i love you cassie until we are together again may god keep you safe in his care.
