“ God’s Return For a Child....Reaching an Understanding

*I’ll lend you for a little time, a child of mine, he said
For you to love the while they live and mourn for when they’re dead.*

*It may be six or seven years or twenty two or three
But will you till I call them back, take care of them for me?*

They’ll bring you charms to gladden you and shall their stay be brief.....

You’ll have their tender memories as solace for your grief.

*I cannot promise they will stay, since all from earth return.....
But there are lessons taught down there I want this child to learn.*

*I’ve looked the wide world over in my search for teachers true...
And from the folks that crowd life’s lanes, I have selected you.*

*Now will you give them all your love; don’t think the labor vain,
Don’t hate me when I come to call to take them home again?*

*I fancied that I heard them say
“Dear Lord, Thy Will Be Done!”
For all the joy that children bring, the risk of grief we’ll run.*

*We’ll shelter them with tenderness, we’ll love them while we may,
And for the happiness we’ve known, forever grateful stay.*

*Shall the angels call for them much sooner than we’ve planned,
We’ll brave the bitter grief that came and try to understand.*
