

Christopher S. "Chris" Young

October 11, 1965 - May 9, 2024

Christopher S. "Chris" Young, 58, of Carlisle, passed away unexpectedly after several years of illnesses, with his brother at bedside. Chris was born in Lebanon on October 11, 1965, son of Charles and Patricia A. Cool Young of Rexmont.

He was a 1984 graduate of Cedar Crest High School and the Lebanon County Career and Technology Center. Prior to opening his The Winning Edge auto detailing business, Chris, had been employed by Frederick's, Bobby Rahal, Bob Ruth dealerships. He enjoyed roasting and sharing coffee beans, his rescued dogs and being helpful.

In addition to his parents, Chris is survived by his brother Scott, husband of Cindy Young of Palmyra, nephew Justin Bord; several aunts, uncles and their families and his dog Pyrana.

Chris's funeral service will be private with casketed interment in Quentin Cemetery.

“ Chris detailed cars for the Enterprise Car Sale operation for years. He was a pleasure to work with and helped my family out in time of need as he took in our dog Buddy for a little bit to help out as we had a young family and the dog was untrained. After a couple nights at Chris's house old Buddy came back to us well behaved and we were able to keep her. He had a good heart. Steve

“ Chris, we will never forget you or all the fun times we had growing up! The New York trip when we all went up to see Scottie and we buried you in the sand at the beach, to the Knoebels trip, what a fun day, and when we went to the Jigger shop last year, but most of all for being our lifelong neighbor and friend. You were like a son to mom and a brother to us. RIP Chris we love you, and will miss you, until we meet again ❤️🙏

Charlie, Pat, & Scott, so sorry for your loss. Chris was a happy lad in his younger days. He always greeted you with a beautiful smile no matter who you were, he had that smile for you. Loved to joke with you at times also. We have not seen or talked to Chris in many years:: why? I do not know, however we never forgot about you. So rest in peace Chris, fly high and we shall meet you up in Heaven someday waiting to be greeted one more time by that beautiful smile.

My prayers to you Pat, Charlie and Scott. So sorry for your loss. I didn't know Chris well but whenever I encountered him, he was a kind soul. He is at rest in the arms of our Saviour and no more pain. I pray for peace in your hearts.
