“ My deepest condolences to the family. He will be sorely missed by so many. I had the pleasure of meeting Cliff back in my starting career as a county police officer, probably in late 1972. Over the years, I'd get to interface with him on the work side as well as our FOP meetings. He was always very professional and a likeable fellow. Eventually, his home became Cedar Haven, but I still got to visit him since he had become a very good friend of so many there, as well as a Billy Stahl, whom I've been visiting for years. He would dazzle us with his stories of life gone by, being a WWII Navy Veteran, and the work he had done for the residents of Cedar Haven. Cliff did this with such a clear mind into his age of 95. I know I will miss him tremendously, but we all will be together some day. May God Bless you Cliff with the new home he has prepared for you. Brother Swingholm, FOP Lodge #42.
