“ Sending peace and love to my family remembering our last visit together at your moms 90th birthday at Merit Island, Florida. It was so good to see you. I remember the visits as a child up north to see Aunt Rose and as a young child i thought you were so cute... You passed too soon but I know your love is still around us if we just take a look. Love is enough, love never dies. Love you Gus. Even though the miles seperated us as family through the years, nothing can seperate love. I'm so happy you are now without pain and find an even greater happiness/peace on the other side.
