“ So sorry to hear of Marie's death. She was a big part of my childhood at church with teaching Sunday School, and hosting youth parties at the house. She was always willing to help those in need. Love and my sympathies to all! It is wonderful to know that she's not in pain and with her Lord!

“ I have such fond memories of being in this home many times. Marie was a WONDERFUL woman....so hospitable and giving. Her faith was obvious, and she was a living example of a Christ-like personality....great friends with my parents as well. My condolences to all the family....all of whom I have lost touch with but have memories of so many hours of laughter together when we were all much younger.
