“ I was fortunate enough to spend some time with Aunt Ida and Uncle Dan a few summers a long time ago. I adored them both and regret that I wasn't able to see them more. I was always there when they came back east to visit and we spoke on the phone. I will always remember how they both loved to write letters. I recently had a fire in my home and some of those letters were lost as well. My heart aches that I can't see them any more until some day but I will always love them and keep them alive in my thoughts. I love and miss you ! Annamarie Britz Kemmerer

“ Uncle Dan,

You're gone, but you, Aunt Ida, Kevin and Mike will always be in my heart. I was crushed to hear you were gone, and I will miss you forever. Thank you for all those great, marinated and cooked steaks, and having those great talks with me. May God Bless you and keep you always.
