

Dolores L. Costello

June 29, 1931 - July 12, 2014

Dolores L. Costello, 83, of Lancaster passed away into the loving arms of Jesus Saturday morning, July 12, 2014 at Lancaster Regional Medical Center. She had lived in Florida in most recent years, moving to the Lancaster area a year and a half ago to be near family. Born in Philadelphia, she was the daughter of the late Edward and Margaretha Wolf D'Antonio. She was the wife of John S. Costello, whom survives.

Dolores was a registered nurse working in various areas in which she resided. She attended Harvest Bible Church, Lancaster and enjoyed traveling, playing bridge, reading, bible study, and her cats.

Surviving in addition to her husband Jack are sons, William J. (Maureen) Artz, Jr., Holland, PA and Stephen B. Artz, Mountville; daughters, Susan B. Hall, Lancaster and Cindy L. (Sam) Bigler, Millersville; 7 Grandchildren; 2 Great Grandchildren; sisters, Bernadette McMeans, Phila. And Marge Krader, Pottstown. She was preceded in death by her sister, Shirley Clarke.

Family and friends are respectfully invited to attend Dolores' Memorial Service on Saturday, July 19, 2014 from Grace UM Church, 163 W. Frederick St., Millersville, PA at 11:00 AM with Rev. John Laughlin and Pastor Samuel Bereza officiating. Interment will be held in Millersville Mennonite Cemetery. Friends will be received at the church from 10:30 to 11:00 AM Saturday. Please omit flowers, memorial remembrances may be made in Dolores' name to any Hospice of Donor's choice.

Tribute Wall

“ Dolores L. Costello

October 22, 2023 at 10:35 PM

“ Dolores L. Costello

October 06, 2023 at 08:29 AM

“ Dolores L. Costello

October 05, 2023 at 11:43 PM

“ Your mother will be sorely missed. She was so full of life and so happy that she made everyone around her happy

Nancy Doak - July 15, 2014 at 12:00 AM