“ As a kid right out of high school, I had the privilege of working with and later for Edith, in the 1970's in the Dairy payroll dept. of Hershey Chocolate.

A more accountable and precise bookkeeper you could not find.

With her impeccable writing style, you would always know who's writing was on the page in front of you.

One who could always take a lot of ribbing and also dish it out, was never offended when I would call her a women's libber, and she in turn would call me a male chauvinist! Never forgetting birthdays, I would faithfully receive a birthday card from her many, many years after her retirement from Hershey.

Her example of proper conduct in the business world made an indelible impression on me through the years. She will be missed, but the memories will linger on.

God rest her soul.

God Bless!
