

Faith A. Trunk

August 5, 1939 - December 7, 2022

Faith A. Trunk, 83, of Lebanon, PA, died Wednesday, December 7, 2022, at the Lebanon Wellspan Good Samaritan Hospital due to complications from hip surgery. She was the beloved wife of the late Joseph H. Trunk, who preceded her in death on January 4, 2022.

Faith was born in Kingston, PA on August 5, 1939. She was the oldest of three daughters born to David & Anna Conway. In 1952 she was baptized as one of Jehovah's Witnesses and was a member of the West Nanticoke, PA congregation. Faith was on her Student Council and graduated from Harter High School in 1957.

She lived in different parts of the world but spent over 50 years of her life on the Blue Mt. Horse Farm in Saugerties, NY, with a spectacular view of her beloved Catskill Mountains. Faith married Joe on February 6, 1975, and she enjoyed helping her husband (who acted as caretaker of the property) with the horses and other animals. She raised two children with Joe and spent time helping them and others learn Bible truths as a longtime member of the Saugerties Congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses. More recently she was associated with the Cleona Congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses in Lebanon, PA.

Faith loved to read & learn, and she taught herself many skills, including painting, sewing, knitting, and quilting. She was a member of The Mountain View Artists Group and had been employed as a nail tech at Gerta's of Austria Spa for many years. Faith had a keen eye for style and decorating and created a cozy home for her family full of love and care. Those that met her found her to be a bright, curious, and engaging individual with a warm smile and good heart.

She will be greatly missed and is survived by her daughter, Angelique (Angel) Barton, wife of Marc Barton of Lebanon; her son, A.J. Trunk of Las Vegas, NV; her sister, Diane Plasser of West Chester, PA; nieces Elizabeth and Pamela; stepchildren Steve and Sue Corleto, and Debbie and Ed Black; step-grandchildren Joey, Lisa, Les, Lindsay, Mikey, Maria, Misty, Sheena, Destinee, and Steven, along with many step-great-grandchildren and extended family and friends.

Services will be announced at a later date.

In lieu of flowers or gifts, Faith would want you to express your love to the precious ones in your life.

“ My dearest Faith,
I am saddened by your departure, but joyful in your newfound peace and healing. I will never forget the call I got from my husband, Steve Corleto, saying Dad called, he and Faith need help. I immediately notified my boss I had to leave, ran home, threw a few things in an overnight bag and headed to NY. What a privilege and honor to know you both knew I would take care of you. Upon entering your home, I immediately knew the gravity of the situation, I called Steve, my husband, Joe's son, your stepson and said "we have to get them out of here, or they will not make it". Within 2 weeks, we packed up your stuff with the help of Steve, Marc, Angel, Tony Bonitatibus and Pat and Jim Raugh and moved you to our home in Langhorne, PA. We also had a much larger support system to numerous to mention. The next year and a half was an adventure... doctors, aides, surgeries, accidents, laughs, tears, and secrets. Dad slipping me a note to buy you an anniversary card and flowers. You were not only the wife of Joseph Trunk, you were a friend, a mentor, a guide. Stepmother to Joey, Karen, Debbie, Steve and Mike. Step grandmother to Joey Pell, Lisa, Les, Lindsay, Mikey, Maria, Misty, Sheena, Destinee and Steven Wayne. Step Great Grandmother to countless more including Camille Faith who carries your name. You were a complex woman with complex impacts on this world. Gone but not forgotten. Susan

“ I am so sorry to hear about Faith and shocked to hear of her death. I crossed paths with Faith when she lived with my sister and her stepson Steve in Langhorne PA. She was feisty and fun to be around, she had a spirited personality and enjoyed having conversations with everyone. She and I would talk about painting and how she enjoyed it along with her quilting. May you Rest In Peace Faith tell Joe and Michael we said hello.

I'm so sad to hear Faith has left this earth but find comfort knowing shes reunited with Joe. She missed him so and the place that was home for 50 years. All of their friends here (and they had a lot) were sad to see Joe and Faith leave but knew this was best for them. Joe and Faith knew how lucky they were to have a family that would take care of them and welcome them with open arms. Faith you are free of pain, fly high and give Joe a kiss for me.
