“Dad, I can't believe your not here with me and that I'm reading this obituary. Each day since your passing has been more heart-wrenching since it's becoming more real that you are gone. I am without words on how sad, and heavy-hearted I am about not having you here with me. I will miss you dearly as I already do. I will try to lean on God for his strenght, support, and comfort through this rough time. I pray that he helps heal this hurt and helps me to remember you are finally at peace...that you are finally home. I know that you are watching over me, I feel you. It's just hard to know that I'll never see your smile,hear your laugh, talk for hours, go dancing, just sit and talk over coffee, hang out on the holidays, talk on the phone, or give you a hug and kiss ever again. It hurts. Of course there will be tears and saddness, but I will find comfort in all the happy memories we've made, and find peace knowing that you are in heaven. Until we meet again, I love you and miss you,dad.

“Nay and family,

My heart goes out to you and yours for your loss. Henry was always kind to me, we had many a discussion over coffee, which we shared a love of. I'm glad he is finely at peace and suffers no more. My wish is that the family finds the strength to live and love in peace also.....
