“ *Karen & Family,
So sorry for your loss,your father was a very pleasant and kind man,I always enjoyed talking with him when he had appts in our office years ago.
I always would say to him Oh No here comes trouble,then he would grin from ear to ear and say to me,"You should talk and then he would smile. What a wonderful person he was and I know he will be greatly missed. Your family is in ourprayers and may He rest in peace and be with his lovely wife Lucille for eternity.*

“ Certainly we will miss Uncle Herb's presence here among us; but he led a full and productive life, filled with both joys and sorrows. May our Father's peace, grace, and love uphold you as you seek to adjust to life without him. My thoughts and prayers have been and are now with you, as well as in the days ahead .

Lovingly,
Barb
