“ I had the great pleasure of "hanging around" the Hershey Filling station when Chuck was the manager from about 1965 to 1967. Chuck was a great guy, and perhaps due to his time at Milton Hershey School, he allowed the guys hanging around to goof off, but he also allowed us to help him pump gas, etc. In addition, during about the same time period, I was a Bellman at he Cocoa Inn on Chocolate Ave while Ellen was working there as a waitress. What a sweet and beautiful women. It was necessary for the waitresses to be accompanied by the Bellman when delivering room service, so I got to tag along with Ellen many times. I'll never forget Chuck, a terrific friend and gentleman, and Ellen, a lovely lady. So sorry for your loss.
