“ In memory of Uncle Hop, the cool guy and somewhat mysterious or legend like, that has gone on before us into the kingdom of heaven, you'll be missed. I'm sure he'd have many stories to tell, I wish I could have heard them. I remember the time that Hop and Candy came to see me and Jason play at the Railroad House in Marietta, and I'm thankful that I got to share the gift of music and fellowship with him in his last days. But now He has started his first days in the eternal celebration of what God wanted for all of us from the beginning. The gift of family means alot to me and the love of God has transended through our family relationships, our Grandmas, our Mothers and Fathers, Aunts and Uncles, cousins, Sisters and Brothers. So I ask in memory of Uncle Hop and Grandma and others who have shared God's love and have gone before us to continue what has been planted in our hearts and lives and to reach out to others in Christ.

Thank you for giving to the Lord. I am so glad you gave.

"To bring another to Christ is the greatest achievment one can accomplish, for it is eternal."

And even though we mourn may our spirts celebrate the gift of eternal life. Thank you God for the gift of eternal life and thank you Jesus for life.

Love, Gerald

“ Uncle Hop you will be missed. Your hair blowing in the wind as you rode your motorcycle down the road after the family pig roast will be a sweet memory for me. Give my dad a hug for me and we'll see each other again someday.
