

Ismael Bolorin Colon

August 12, 1976 - April 25, 2025

Ismael Bolorin Colon, 48 of Philadelphia, formerly of Lancaster passed away unexpectedly at home on Friday, April 25, 2025. Born in Coatesville, PA, he was son of the late Maximino Bolorin and Rosalina Colon.

Ismael graduated from J.P. McCaskey in 1995. He drove tractor trailer for over 20 years. He currently was employed as a warehouse manager for Y-pers in Philadelphia. He was a Dallas Cowboys fan and enjoyed riding motorcycles. Ismael had a long list of corny jokes. He was a very friendly, non confrontational man who loved time with his family.

Ismael will be deeply missed by his mother, Rosalina Colon of Lancaster; his son, Ishmael J. Bolorin of Lancaster; his brother, Juan Colon of Puerto Rico; his sisters, Sandra DeJesus, Maria Rosario and Erika Rosario-Colon, all of Lancaster and Alejandrina Rosario-Colon of Philadelphia and his nieces, nephews and friends. He was preceded in death by his father, Maximino Bolorin and his brother, Luis Colon.
