“ The King of the Log Cabin - Pops held court by the fire place in the lounge chair. Looked forward to seeing him before we hit the road (age 14) for a hockey trip and then later when I would visit for Thanksgiving and Christmas. After getting my drivers license, I used to honk the horn when I would pass the log cabin whether anyone was home or not.

Jack/Jill - I am sorry for your loss. I will miss him.
