“ I had the absolute honor of being Jerry's Realtor over the past year or so. He was truly one of my favorites; always positive, caring and just an all around great guy. The love that he and Tracey shared was one of a kind and she was truly the love of his life. There was no denying the absolute love he felt for her. My thoughts and prayers are with Tracey and with Jerry's family. His presence was a blessing to many and he will be missed

“ Jerry you were the most respectful, loving, caring, supportive man I've ever met. You returned every ounce of love I gave to you, and then some. We truly were a match made in Heaven. You were my biggest fan and I was yours. My world will never be the same without you. We had so much planned for the next year, plus. Between closing on our home, the wedding and the dogs, we were going to be very busy. Going forward without you is going to be so very difficult. As heartbroken as I am, I am still able to recognize how lucky I was to have you. You have introduced me to so many kind and caring people. Those same people have been reaching out to me and offering words of love and encouragement, prayers to help me through, and embracing arms. I will be forever grateful to you for introducing me to them and to them for accepting me as a member of their family. My Love, I will miss you madly. Please know that I will love you Always .. And Forever.. And a day.. And a night. 💕💋 Tracey

Tracey , I am so sorry for the loss , my condolences to you and the family . There are so few true love stories, and you two were a shining example of what real love is, you two had a sparkle in your eyes when you looked at each other, you could not only see the deep admiration you had for each other , but you felt it , I knew you were in it for the long haul , when you two started talking marriage and we're in the process of buying a house , getting pets , and settling down, and being a family, his buddy Kyle will miss him tremendously, I'm sure , they loved hanging out together. Even though your plans were cut short , you still were able to have what so few people get to experience, you keep him tucked tight in your heart , he will always and is still with you , hugs and prayers to all who knew him .

“ Jerry always had a smile and a “hey dude” no matter if you were a male or female. He loved riding his Harley especially when it was cold out! He was a great guy and will be missed by many!!!
