

Joan C. Bare

November 4, 1934 - November 4, 2014

Joan C. Bare, 80, Cornwall, passed away Tuesday, November 4, 2014 at the Cornwall Manor Health Center. She was the wife of Rev. Thomas W. Bare. She was born in Port Lima, Costa Rico, where her Father worked for United Fruit Co., on November 16, 1933, daughter of the late Dana and Verna Warren Condon.

In early childhood the family moved to Havana, Cuba. She attended Dickinson College, Carlisle, PA where she met her future husband. Joan studied ballet growing up and became an early leader in liturgical dance, conducting workshops and directing dance choirs. Her avid interest in folk dance led her to found the Locus Lane Contra Dance in Colonial Park, PA. She had also taught elementary physical education in private schools for many years.

In addition to her husband, Joan is survived by son, David Thomas Bare and wife Marci, Dresher, PA, daughter, Connie, wife of Dr. Lawrence Wang, Peoria Heights, IL, grandsons, Kevin and Paul Wang, Peoria Heights, IL., and Bryan Yampolski, Philadelphia, PA, and sister, Peggy Power, Redlands, CA.

Family and friends are respectfully invited to attend Joan's memorial service on Saturday, November 15, 2014 at 11:00 AM from Zerr Chapel of Cornwall Manor. In lieu of flowers memorial remembrances in Joan's memory may be made to Cornwall Manor Future Fund for the New Health Center, P.O. Box 125, Cornwall, PA 17016.
