“ Sandy & family So sorry to learn of John's passing. We both enjoyed spending time together while John was getting his haircut either in the kitchen or out on the deck. Hope he didn't have to suffer too much and know that he is in a better place enjoying his final reward. Our thoughts & prayers are with you at this trying time. Sincerely, Vivian & John

“ I remember John even as a little girl when our family went to his house. His mother made delicious meals and I remember playing Parcheesi with John - which is really something because I was very shy. But I was not afraid of him. He was very kind...always was! He married a very good friend of mine - whom I met through my mother. Sandy and I have become very close throughout the years and John was always pleasant when I visited. He was also very kind to my husband. I will miss John answering the phone when I call Sandy, or sitting on the porch in the summer, or just being pleasant anytime I visited Sandy. He knew so many people and places. He is a part of my long-ago past, which makes me home-sick, and part of my not so long ago past by being with Sandy. John is in Heaven and I am so fortunate to have known him. My sympathies go to his family and wife.

“ Dear Sandra, Just now I got an email from Jean (Bross) Patches letting me know of your husband's passing. I do not get the paper, so I was glad she sent me the info. Jean and I still remember the day we visited with you and John several years ago in your home. It was enjoyable to reminisce with you. I was also glad to know for sure that you and John are Christians and love the Lord. This will be the greatest comfort that you will have. When the Lord is right beside you, you can TRUST Him to give you what you need every day. I know. It is 10 years now since my own husband went to be with the Lord. I prayed for you today. Feel free to call me at 717-933-8764. In love, Jean (Fahnestock) Musselman
