“ Joe would ALWAYS take the time to talk to you and he ALWAYS had your back. He was truly a people-person, a great colleague and buddy. Seeing Joe put a smile on your face.

Joe, rest in peace champ and the gifts from your life well-lived that you've given to so many throughout will be cherished and remembered forever.

To Dottie and family,

We hold you safe in our hearts and hope that treasured memories of Joe's love help support you.

“ So sorry to hear about Joe's passing. I don't know when I first met Joe. It was probably when I taught Jeff and Chris in Gym class when they were in elementary school. Although I didn't see Joe often, I always enjoyed talking to him about sports and discussing places to go in the Clearwater and Tampa area. He always took an interest in whomever he was talking with and was so sincere. I sure will miss him. My condolences to the family.

“ Mr. Saile was one of my teachers at NLHS ('66). He held our respect and he certainly taught us well. I guess I never realized how young he was at the time, all teachers seem older to us than what they actually are. I have fond memories of being a part of his class. I send my condolences to the family. From what I've read from others I believe he's enjoying his reward in heaven so I look forward to seeing him again.

“ Joe was my church buddy! He always say behind me every Saturday night! I'd pack a snack (for my 2 year old son) and he'd always comment on what's for dinner. I started packing him a snack as well (he was a fan on green bananas, pretzels, cereal and the occasional orange). Such a sweet soul. He will be missed terribly. May angels lead him in.

“ I had Mr. Saile as a 7th grader at NLHS. He was such a great teacher! Stern....which scared me a little and tough.....always thought he should teach college students - lol I could never grasp 'diagramming sentences' because I daydreamed a lot :) He will be missed and this doesn't seem 'real.' :(

My condolences to the Saile family. I had Mr. Saile for 7th grade English. Mr. Saile was a stern teacher, but if you respected him, he was very kind to you. We talked a lot of baseball in the spare time, I remember him being a Cardinals fan. Joe also umpired some our games when I coached baseball, it was always nice to see Joe again. He always brought a smile to my face. R.I.P. Mr. Saile.

Sad to hear of Mr. Saile's passing. First knew of him as my English teacher and later when he substituted in Jonestown Elementary where I've worked as a paraeducator for many years. Loved to hear his stories. The students loved when he came. May he rest in peace and may his family hold his memories close.
