“ Deepest sympathy to Scott and Collin, as well as the rest of the family. I have many memories of Julie from scouts, school and DDS. You blessed many with you quite personality and loving soul. Wishing your family peace as they adjust to living without your daily physical presence. May they be blessed with grace, and feel the love of friends and family, as they look back on memories until you can all be together again. With Love, Michelle Weisman

“ Sincere sympathy to George & Susie at this terrible time. Our hearts feel for your family at the loss of one so dedicated to her teaching. Julie was a wonderful teacher to her students. We will always remember those Girl Scout days with camping and going to Dorney Park. RIP Julie. Prayers for the family also. No more pain, she is at peace.
