“ To My "Country and Classy" brother, Kenny, Thank you for always being there for me with a listening hear and with broad shoulders. Your humorous traits and BIG heart kept life light too. Through it ALL, Kenny, we are alright! I know that you "braved" cancer and eventually tiring resulting in our Jesus calling you home to be with Him and our loved ones. I am left with deep gratitude for your wife, Sandy and for Jesus appointed time spent with you and for the purpose of you, me and Kathy being reunited as siblings. Kenny, rest in peace, you will always be in my heart and see you again in heaven. Love you dearly Your Sister, Janetps: Are there fancy chickens and classic cars in heaven.....
