

Lamar L. Lindenmuth

February 17, 1947 - October 9, 2014

.Lamar Lee Lindenmuth, age 67, died on October 9, 2014 at Spang Crest Manor in Lebanon after a 25 year battle with Parkinson's Disease. He was born in Danville PA on February 17, 1947, son of Helen Hand Lindenmuth and the late Lamar Leroy Lindenmuth. In addition to his mother, he is survived by a son, James Todd Lindenmuth (Tammy) of Midland TX; two grandchildren, Theron (Kiplyn) and Natasha; two sisters, Jane Lindenmuth of Hershey and Judith Cassel (James) of Mt. Gretna; three nephews and their families; an uncle, Colonel (Ret) John Hand of Hershey and a favorite cousin, Robert Jackle (Beth) of North Carolina.

Lee graduated from Hershey High School in 1965 and Penn State University in 1969 with a degree in Petroleum and Natural Gas Engineering. He enjoyed a highly successful career that included drilling oil and gas wells in Europe, South America, the Middle East and the United States, and he received national acclaim for the development of innovative drilling techniques. He was also an avid Penn State and Philadelphia sports fan.

The family extends heartfelt thanks and gratitude to the staff of Spang Crest Manor who provided excellent and compassionate care and were like a second family to him. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to Spang Crest Manor, 945 Duke St., Lebanon PA 17042.

“ I worked with Lee at Sohio Oil in Midland, TX back in the late eighties. I was so saddened to learn of his passing. Lee was my boss and he possessed great leadership skills and a sense of fairness towards all the employees in his department. I have remembered him with great fondness over these many years. My sincere condolences to his entire family.

“ Dear Helen, Jane, Judy and family, Chal and I were so saddened to hear of Lee's passing. Please accept our deepest condolences. It was always nice visiting with him. Chal said he always enjoyed his conversations with Lee, especially about all the sports teams. Lee was a really nice guy. We know it is a difficult time for all of you but know that he is no longer suffering and can really be at peace. All of you are in our prayers and thoughts at this most difficult time. “ Dear Mrs. Lindenmuth, Jane and Judy,
I extend to each of you sincere sympathy in the loss of your son and brother. I wish peaceful moments for you as you remember Lee and all his accomplishments.
My heart is filled with pride having know my classmate and his constant interest, even from a distance, in all of our reunion activities. He just loved when Bill showed him all the reunion photographs of classmates. He could still be and feel a part of the class of '65. I am filled with relief for him and each of you that he no longer suffers.
Keeping him and each of you in our thoughts and prayers,
Nancy Paoletti Chango and the Class of '65

“ To the Lindenmuth family Sorry for your loss. My memories of a childhood growing up on Areba Avenue include many good moments with Lee. He was quite the scientist and experimenter. My grandfather made homemade wine. Lee was always quick to volunteer his labor to help in the process. Of course, as you can imagine, whoever helped, got to sample the wine. Lee is in a better place now, without pain and suffering. And probably conspiring with all the wine makers to make his visit more enjoyable. From my family to yours, Peace to all of you at this time!
