“ Mom- 2 days ago marked the 2 yr anniversary of your passing from this life and on to another. And even though I know you are having an amazing time there- I wish you were here right now.

Jema is almost 14 months old now and she has your smile. I have a picture of you in her room and 2 days ago I brought it off the shelf and showed her and talked to her about you. She was busy pointing to your face and looking at you and then she sweetly gave you a kiss. It was so precious...I hope you felt that where you are. She will know you- know your spirit, know your godly character, know your love for her...even though she never met you in person. But I know how you would have lavished her with love and sweet lil gifts and I'm sure lots of those chocolate chip oatmeal cookies- so she will be sure to know all that and much more!

I miss you so much it hurts. You were a wonderful Mother and I hope to be as good of a mother to Jema as you were to me. LOVE YOU.

*Love your loving daughter :)

“ Thinking of and missing Laurie today. The sadness is still here even several months after her death. BUT I take comfort in her smile, her laugh, her advice, her love. Every part of her is still here. She lives on inside each of us who were fortunate to have her as a friend. Her love for us is stronger and more powerful than all the sadness we feel. The memories and love remain even though she is gone. I hope you all take comfort in that as well.

“ Laurie was indeed a treasure of a friend, a gift from the Lord. She had such a positive attitude and was a joy to be with. I am so grateful for all the times we shared together. Truly the Lord was her strength.

“ I thought of Laurie as soon as I read this quote:
"The things you do for yourself are gone when you are gone, but the things you do for others remain as your legacy."

“ Dear J.J. and Andrea,

It's been many years since I saw your mom or either of you but I know you were blessed by your mom's love for you. She was a very special lady, filled with faith in the Lord and joyfully sharing that faith through every aspect of her life. I'll never forget her hospitality in Philadelphia when we were part of the young married couples' class at Berachah together. That was, as I said, many years ago, but she was a blessing then and I'm sure, remained a blessing to all who ever knew her afterward.

May God bless and keep you as you treasure memories and her legacy of faith.

*Prayerfully,
Nancy*

“ I thank God for having had the opportunity for our paths to cross at CEFC. It was so great to have been in the same care group and to have gone to our gatherings and picnics and just share our prayers and just to be there for each other. I must say that your were truly an inspiration to those who would ever lack faith, trust and love in God. Your life sure showed your love for Him and for the lives of those around you that came into your life. Your smile will live in my mind and heart forever. Also, I was very glad to have had the opportunity to clean for you. I never really thought you needed a cleaning lady, but I did appreciate helping you out. You will be missed daily. I also pray for your children and their families as it will not be easy for them. However, we will see you in Heaven one day and we can sing and dance for Jesus as one big happy family.

“ Laurie was a dear close friend at Trinity College in the mid 1960's. We shared many memories and good times. My greatest memory is of her unwavering faith in Christ and the resulting way she lived...genuine and caring, treating all others with respect and love. I know she is in God's loving presence at this very moment. May God bless and comfort Laurie's family.

*In Christ,

“ Laurie, thank you for your example of one whose steadfast faith firmly rests in your heavenly Father. It was a privilege to spend three years at TKA with you.

“ My memories of Laurie are all the double dating we did in college and when we first got married. Both of our husbands were in a quartet together. Afterwards, the two husbands performed at different church functions. After Laurie and Steve moved to PA , we only saw them once when JJ was 2 (I think) and our son Norman was 3. We have kept in touch since then by mail or e-mail later. I teach Kindergarten like Lauri did, so we shared about our classes. I know lately I haven't kept up, but I am thankful that she loved the Lord and lived for Him. Rhonda
