“ *I am sorry I was unable to attend "Betz*s" service on Monday due to our hectic candy season. I know if anyone would understand, it would be her since she spent over 20 years' worth of Christmas candy seasons with us. She was a valuable and dependable worker over those years. Her toughness really showed through her last few years as she continued to do good work despite some physical ailments. She definitely retired on her own terms. Her work ethic was only overshadowed by her goodness as a person. She was most definitely a good friend and colleague and will always be remembered at our candy business. Our hearts go out to Joan, John, Jane and Jim and their spouses and the rest of her family. Kirk and Dawn VanWinkle*
