“ My sincere condolences to the entire families of Mary. I had just recently learned of this and Mary was always such a character of vibrance. She knew me since birth and that goes back to 1962 as my mother and her were longtime friends. Though not to have seen her in some years, I still can recall numerous times to visit her and Tom as a kid in their unique home in Conestoga. Or they would visit my parents for years and always a pleasure to share time with her and Tom. She does hold a place in my heart and mind for years to had been one of my mother's closest friends. Prayers for the family and Mary to be in the grace of god.
