

Megan M. Creter

August 2, 1986 - March 6, 2024

Megan M. Creter, 37 of Richmond, Va formerly of Lancaster passed away Wednesday, March 6, 2024 at Forest Hills Nursing Home after a courageous fight with brain tumors for over 10 years. Megan was born in Lancaster on August 2, 1986, the daughter of the Tyler Creter of Jacksonville, Florida and the late Christine Slaymaker Kreger. Megan was the wife of Christopher Rehm.

Megan attended elementary school at the School District of Lancaster and High School in Manheim Township. She was an active and outgoing lady who enjoyed working in the food industry as a waitress. She loved the beach and trips to Ocean City, Maryland with her family.

Megan will be deeply missed by her maternal grandparents, Mitchell and Wanda Burkholder of Adamstown and her husband Christopher Rehm of Dillwyn, Virginia. Megan was blessed with 4 children, Sean Rehm, Carter Rehm, Tayler Rehm and Payten Rehm, all living in Virginia. She is also survived by her step daughter, Macala Mummaw; her half brother, Zachary Creter and her father, Tyler Creter. Megan was preceded in death by her mother, Christine and her brother, Corey Creter.

Megan's wish was to donate her body for scientific research.
