“ Paul Bailey shared the persona of John Burns, citizen soldier of Gettysburg over the past several years at our Civil War living history events from our first years at the Pequea Valley Public Library through these past four years at the Robert Fulton Birthplace south of Quarryville, Pennsylvania. Here he is pictured with Paul, James, and Andy Wunderlich at their first event in 2016. This began a four-year friendship as these boys joined the event that first year at Fulton and shared that friendship ever since. We looked forward to our time together each year and whenever our paths crossed in between. Paul and Nancy were inseparable in their visits. Paul will be sorely missed. God bless you both and the fond memories from over the years. J. Arthur Moore, in His love and in friendship
