“ So sorry for you all in the loss of Phyllis. She always had a ready smile and "hello" for us as we all came and went from the office in the midst of our workdays. Praying that your family is comforted during this sad time.

“ I will always remember your Mom and Grandma as being a very strong, wise, brave, loving and caring woman who went through a lot in life, but still managed to joke and laugh. I'd admired her passion for life and boldness to go for whatever it was she wanted. She also kicked my butt in Ruzzles!

“ To my extended Nixon family I am so thankful for Phyllis Hardys' birth or my beautiful daughter Vaunya would have never been born to Yvonne Nixon. Phyllis was a very sweet funny woman who knew how to cook with love in every bite. I am grateful to have met her & spent those crucial times when my first born to me came into the world & she was there to help guide & instruct Vonnie & I how to properly take care of her. Im so proud of the Nixon family because they know me as well as I know them. And Phyllis & all her children have rose to each & every occassion in ways people cant fathom if they are just meeting them. I pray that yall find comfort in one another deeper than yesterday because no day is promised to any of us wether we are healthy or not. Sadly we are all born to unto this fateful day. But I hope that the remaining Nixon family know that Phyllis started & left a remarkable legacy on many different levels. R.I.P. Phyllis Hardy you were & truly are an inspiration.

“ Phyllis, a soft hearted, fun loving, beautiful soul, now rests with God and needs nothing, not even air. May God help us to understand that and give us comfort in knowing He has mercifully given her peace.
