“ It's just terrible how one loses contact with their relatives. When the maternal figures are gone (Anna Clay & Christine Bailor), no one seems to take the time to get together. I always remember getting together with Patsy and Gary at their grandma's house when we were little. Patsy & Gary I feel for your loss and pray that God will get you through this.

“ Pop,

We are going to miss are afternoons on the porch watching the birds and talking about old memories with you, taking you to Ruby Tuesday or how you would say "RUBY TUBY". I am especially going to miss are Saturday runs to Harrisburg while Gary was working taking you to eat at the Olive Garden, Auntie Annes Pretzels. Pop at least we got you to the beach and to Asseateague Island to see the Ponies, something you were so proud of when you got your picture taken. I don't want to let go just yet, but I know that God needed another Angel and Mom needed you more than we did, so Pop we love you Rest in Peace until we meet again my sweet dear Pop.
