“ My most memorable times with Ricardo will always be our fishing trips . He was kinda like the older brother I always wanted and he will be missed very much . He was a kind gentle person that anyone who knew him was richer for it . He welcomed the friendship and always tried to make my days better when things looked bleak and welcomed me like I was part of the family . You are missed and loved by all of us Ricardo , and I pray for the day we can laugh together again . I know you will be standing by heaven's gate with rod in hand waiting to go fishing . I really miss you brother .

“ My deepest condolences to the family. I had the pleasure to meet Ricardo on Thanksgiving 2019. It was an honor to be with your family. I didnt know him well but he sure kept everyone engaged with laughs at our end of the table. He sat directly across from me. I will never forget him. God bless your family with peace and strength during this time.
