“ Nancy, I'm so sorry for your loss.

My husband, Jerry Eckman (not related) used to talk to Dick on the radios from the Conowingo and Muddy Run Control Rooms to Safe Harbor. All those guys got to know each other!! ...many good memories..

“ Dick was my cousin! I remember the days when we were young and visited each other. The last time I saw him was 1983 at a family reunion. Living in Alabama, I didn't get to see my relatives very often. My deepest sympathy to Nancy and family.

“ When I think of Dick Rineer, one word immediately comes to mind. That word is “quality”! Dick was truly a quality human being in so many ways. We had countless good times together inside and out of Safe Harbor. He will be missed! To Nancy, Mark & Keith and to his entire family, Sharon and I extend our deepest and sincerest sympathy. You all are in our thoughts and prayers. Can’t say it enough, Dick will be missed.....
Thanks Dick for all the great memories, Mike Corradino.
