“ My Uncle Ricky was a HUGE part of my life as a child and in my teenage years and adult years. When I would see him as an adult, he would laugh because I would still call him uncle Ricky. He was EXTREMELY out spoken and if anybody knew him,they know what I am talking about. That is what I loved about him...our family is very loud...and that is okay. He believed what he believed in and didn't care what people thought. He loved, loved,loved his family and most of all his wife,my aunt Leslie. Aunt Leslie, thank you for loving him like you did, I am very grateful for you! I have many many memories of my Uncle Ricky. My mom,and him were very close. He was always there. My memory of how close they were was when my Uncle Ricky and Aunt Leslie got married and they had a very intimate close family reception at Aunt Leslie family's house, they were going to be moving out of state and my mom was devastated. My mom cried the whole time of the reception. She was so happy that Leslie was a part of our family but could not handle the fact that her brother was moving away. I remember feeling so sorry for my mom. My uncle Ricky was at my sweet 16 birthday party,it was awesome,he danced and cooked for my party, I will never forget that! I will miss him TREMENDOUSLY! Love you Uncle Ricky, I hope you are still out spoken in heaven, who cares what they think. Love Always, Missy and Bill.
