“ I grew up in Conestoga, PA and it was awesome living right beside the Boyd family for several years. Really good people led by 2 great parents Bob & Ethel. My father was a good provider and I wasn't abused or anything like that. But it was obvious that he wasn't interested in really being in my life or even my mothers. I probably didn't realize it but Mr. Boyd was helping to fill a void in my life. We didn't have a personal relationship, I think he had enough on his plate with 4 of his own kids. But he was really good to me. Many times I was invited to go fishing, hunting, trips to the mountains, ice cream trips and many many other things. Am sure like many families not everything was perfect. But I seen a lot and they sure seemed perfect to me. The main thing is they always did a lot together and made a lot of good memories. What I remember specifically about Mr. Boyd was for one I got to see him work one day hanging drywall. I was very impressed he was extremely fast and accurate, I thought to myself I am truly watching someone that had completely mastered his craft and of course in keeping with his character he was not cocky or arrogant. Just a very humble hardworking man. His daily habits was that of a man that tried to live a life of integrity and morals. I remember him being someone that had compassion and empathy for others but was stern when it was justified to be so. I was so happy that I ran into him a couple years ago after almost 30years. Am so glad I got to see him one last time. Am so glad this great man was a part of my own personal journey. Mr. Boyd is in heaven now and he can finally see everything, and believe he will even take a couple minutes to read this. So I just want to tell you Mr. Boyd you will not be forgotten. A part of you and your great qualities will live on in your kids and many other people who's lives you touched such as my own. Thankyou Mr. Boyd
