“ Bob never liked attention or even thanks. He showed his faith in God by the unselfish ways in which he served others; his trust in Christ as Savior was a treasure he held dear to his heart and shared with others in quiet words and humble deeds.

“ I have been fortunate to have Bob in my life since I was a child. Always a kind, gentle and humorous man I could count on, just like another dad.

“ *My Dearest Pop-Pop,
I can't believe you are gone. I will miss you so very much! I will never forget you and will always love you. I will hold on tightly to all the memories we have shared. You were the best grandfather. You were always putting others first. Your kind, gentle and loving spirit was a testimony of God's love. I thank you for all the time and love you poured into my life and my boys lives. You will live on in our hearts! May we carry on your legacy!*
Love,
Erin

“ My condolences go out to Bob's family and friends.

I worked with Bob at Safe Harbor from December of 1984 until his retirement. Bob was always great to work with. He was very knowledgeable and responsible and I learned a lot working with him. Bob had a keen wit and a great sense of humor. I saw him from time to time after he retired and always thought of him when I passed "Uncle Sam" the mailbox going to and from work on Penn Grant Road. I will remember Bob fondly.

“ Bob and I were neighbors for over a decade. He was a kind and gracious man, always having time to chat over coffee in his shop. He was "Skip" and I was "Moe."

He would never say "no" when I needed a favor and was quick to lend a hand.

We shared our faith with one another and served as mutual encouragers in our walk with God. Bob taught me how to keep the big picture in mind, to walk in mercy and grace and to always be forgiving. I loved him dearly.

Blessings and prayers to Shirley and family.

“ Dearest Pop-Pop,

Thank you for everything you have done for me and taught me in life. To name a few, teaching me how to be gracious and humble and honor others, you taught me how to hunt, fish and work with wood. We had so much fun together!

It is so hard to put into words what you mean to me, but you have truly been a blessing in my life and I will always remember you and all of the good times we have had together. I could not have asked for a better grandfather! You will always be in my heart, I love you Pop-Pop!

Love, Eric
