“ I had the pleasure of meeting Sharon in 2000. I had just moved to Lancaster, and I was looking for a hair stylist. I had some unpleasant experiences with previous stylists in the area, but Sharon was the stylist for me. Her no nonsense attitude about your appointment was a refreshing change. She understood the true meaning of that word. I followed her from her salon in her garage, to Sistaz, and then Sola's. She challenged me to grow my hair (by refusing to cut it of course), and then when I was ready for a change, she said "Okay". I almost gave myself whiplash (smiles).

She touched so many lives and created so many memories that will linger. My prayers and deepest condolences to all of you. May you gather comfort from your faith and from each other during this difficult time.
