“ Thad, there is nothing harder than losing a loved one. It never seems fair, it's always too early and it leaves you feeling a multitude of emotions. Embrace the love and support of your family and friends, we're here for anything you need. Our loved ones never completely leave us, they live on in our memories and the stories we tell. Not going to lie, it never gets easier and you'll never miss him any less but you will carry him with you the rest of your life and hopefully you can find comfort in that. Again, anything you need don't hesitate to reach out. Our thoughts and prayers are with you and your family

“ My prayers and thots are with Tim's family & friends. I have known Tim for the past 6-7 years while he worked at WaWa and the drivers at BOYO stopped in on their routs transporting school children. Tim always had a kind & funny greeting and was great on the comebacks when we teased him. Tim was a fantastic gentleman and will be sadly missed. Reast in Peace Tim.

“ I did not know Tim, but I have come to know his son Thaddeus, and if he is half the man Thad is, he can be proud of who he was and how he raised his son.
