“ My best memory of walt is him putting together puzzles, the harder the better. My niece and i used to find him puzzles when we were out thrift shopping.

I also walked right past him when he was ringing the bell at Christmas before i realized it was him.

He always talked about his niece, but i never got her name.

We have missed seeing him putting together his puzzles in the community room.

My sister also had kidney problems but was blessed that her daughter gave her a kidney

RIP WALT
