“ As neighbors of William, Jeff and I will truly miss his amazing smile and sense of humor. We so enjoyed watching William taking care of the bird feeder and the flowers in the back garden. William was pretty quiet but once you got him talking he was such a joy to be around. Oh, how we will miss seeing him and Anna walk "the circle" each evening (sometimes a little earlier). Many times I was blessed to have long talks with the both of them. I always knew when Anna and I were talking too long- cause William would just start to walk away without a word. I guess standing too long wasn't so good for him.

I particularly enjoyed how William always kept his car shining, I don't think I ever saw as much as dust on that car. He always seemed to busy at something. Our little street here will be absent a good soul. One who is truly missed. We love you William and know you are telling me right now-- "It is time to walk".... Love , Linda and Jeff.
