

Wilmer I. Pagan-Stack

May 28, 1993 - November 27, 2021

Wilmer I. Pagan-Stack, 28, formerly of Lebanon passed away unexpectedly at Fort Buchanan in Puerto Rico on Saturday, November 27, 2021 where he was stationed. Born in Bayamon, Puerto Rico on May 28, 1993, he was the son of the late Carlos A. Pagan Santiago and Marileen I. Stack Rivera.

Will graduated in 2011 from Lebanon High School. He graduated from YTI with a degree in culinary arts. He had worked as a detailer for Ebersole Honda and as a line cook for Iron Valley Golf Club. He joined the United States Army Reserves and worked at Indiantown Gap as a mechanic. He enlisted in the United States Army on April 13, 2015, currently serving with the 402nd Civil Affairs Battalion at Fort Buchanan, Puerto Rico.

He loved his dogs, Shadow and Raven. He enjoyed working out, playing video games, modified cars and watching Dragon Ball Z.

Wilmer will be missed by his mother, Marileen and his step father, Rafael Rodriguez of Kissimmee, Florida; brothers, Carlos S. Pagan and Victor M. Pagan, both of Lebanon; sisters, Marielys Pagan Stack of Harrisburg and Mariangelys Pagan Stack of Lebanon; niece, Kariani Pagan of Lebanon; his girlfriend, Carley Reinhart of Lebanon and his maternal grandmother Justina Rivera of Puerto Rico.

Family and friends are respectfully invited to attend Will's graveside service with full military honors at 2PM Wednesday, December 29, 2021 at Indiantown Gap National Cemetery. Friends will be received on Tuesday, December 28, 2021 from Noon until 8PM from the Porterfield-Scheid Funeral Directors & Cremation Services, 890 Isabel Drive, Lebanon and also on Wednesday, December 29, 2021 from 11AM to 1PM at the funeral home.
